Offering Envelopes: We are presently in the process of preparing 2023 offering envelopes for distribution. Most people find using offering envelopes a helpful way to give. They allow givers to give in a confidential manner and assure that gifts are directed toward the proper fund with minimal confusion. Offering envelopes also provide a way for the church to provide contributors receipts for charitable gifts. We also realize that some people prefer not to use envelopes for their giving and do not need receipts for their charitable giving from the church. As was the case in 2022, offering envelopes will only be automatically assigned for those confirmed members who made use of them during the previous year. If you never received envelopes and would like a set, we will happily assign them to you in the coming year. Regular visitors can also be assigned envelopes if they want them. Simply contact the church office or the financial chairman or secretary. Envelopes for 2023 should be ready to be picked up in the basement by the weekend of December 9th.

Valley Lutheran Board Report: Valley Lutheran played host to six Lutheran grade school volleyball teams in the first Annual "Volley at Valley" tournament on October 8th. Members of the VL Class of 2023 had the opportunity to go on Senior Retreat for a weekend of team-building, time outside, games, challenge courses, fellowship, and fun. This experience is often a highlight of senior year. The Concordia University Chicago Wind Symphony performed a portion of their 2022 Fall Tour concert at an end-of-the-day concert for our high school students. 9 members of the VL Symphonic Band performed a piece with the group during the assembly and 6 of those same Valley students had the opportunity to join the group during the evening concert at St. Lorenz. Valley Lutheran served as a loading place for two Lutheran World Relief semi-trucks. The Varsity Volleyball Team earned a District Championship on November 3rd defeating Vassar in straight sets. The team advanced to the Region Semifinals where they lost to Cass City. The team had a great season! Claire Neumann qualified for states with a 6th place finish at the Cross Country Regional Meet. The VL Women's Cross Country Team earned a collective 5th place finish. The State Cross Country Meet was held at Michigan International Speedway. The Fall Drama Department production was a movie this year! "Our Place" written by Terry Gabbard, is a compilation of 5 stories that all take place on the same unassuming dock on a small lake. It was shown in the Resource Center on two evenings and even featured a Red Car-

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

C But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

P Let us then confess our sins to God our Father.

C Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name.
Amen.

P Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Old Testament Reading

Malachi 3:13–18

¹³“Your words have been hard against me, says the LORD. But you say, ‘How have we spoken against you?’ ¹⁴You have said, ‘It is vain to serve God. What is the profit of our keeping his charge or of walking as in mourning before the LORD of hosts? ¹⁵And now we call the arrogant blessed. Evildoers not only prosper but they put God to the test and they escape.’”

¹⁶Then those who feared the LORD spoke with one another. The LORD paid attention and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the LORD and esteemed his name. ¹⁷“They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, in the day when I make up my treasured possession, and I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him. ¹⁸Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.”

Epistle

Colossians 1:13–20

¹³He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

¹⁵He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. ¹⁶For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. ¹⁷And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. ¹⁹For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, ²⁰and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

²⁷And there followed [Jesus] a great multitude of the people and of women who were mourning and lamenting for him. ²⁸But turning to them Jesus said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. ²⁹For behold, the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!’ ³⁰Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us,’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us.’ ³¹For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

³²Two others, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. ³³And when they came to the place that is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. ³⁴And Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.” And they cast lots to divide his garments. ³⁵And the people stood by, watching, but the rulers scoffed at him, saying, “He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!” ³⁶The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine ³⁷and saying, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!” ³⁸There was also an inscription over him, “This is the King of the Jews.”

³⁹One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, “Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!” ⁴⁰But the other rebuked him, saying, “Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? ⁴¹And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong.” ⁴²And he said, “Jesus,
